From COMMEMORATIVE BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF THE COUNTY
OF YORK, ONTARIO. Toronto, 1907.

JOHN MITCHELL, who died in County Halton, Ont., Dec. 21, 1896, was a member of a family long identified with Canada. He was born in the County of Peel in 1833, son of Matthew and Nancy (McKinley) Mitchell, the former a native of England, and the latter of Pennsylvania.

Matthew Mitchell was a son of John Mitchell, who founded the family in Canada, settling in County Peel, Ont., where he cleared a farm from the bush and there spent the remainder of his life. He had two sons, Matthew and Richard, and two daughters, Jane and Elizabeth. Matthew Mitchell spent his life in the Counties of Peel and Halton, where he was engaged in farming, and he died in the former county. His wife, who was Nancy McKinley, had a brother, George, who also came to Canada, they being the founders of the McKinley family in this country. The children of Matthew and Nancy Mitchell were: Mary, deceased, who married George Close; George McKinley, deceased; John; Leurania, widow of Joseph Stoddard, and Matthew, deceased.

John Mitchell was educated in the Counties of Peel and York, and spent his active life in County Halton, engaged in farming. In 1856 he married Miss Margaret Campbell. . . Both Mr. and Mrs. Campbell came to Canada as young people in 1829, locating in Toronto, where they were married in 1833. Mr. Campbell was a blacksmith on Queen street east, opposite the Metropolitan Methodist Church. His shop and Mr. Good's foundry were burned in ~~1841~~ 1842, and soon thereafter he went to Brampton, where he continued his trade, and died July 5, 1895, his wife surviving until March, 1897. Their children were: John, of County Peel; William, of Illinois; Margaret, Mrs. Mitchell; James, of Barrie; Thomas, of Iowa; Robert, of Snellgrove; David, deceased; Anderson, deceased; and Susan, of Brampton.

To Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were born the following children: William, of Toronto, who married Edith Ingledew; Matthew, of Brampton, who married Emma Dewar; . . . Mt. Mitchell was a member of the Methodist Church. . . and a Reformer. . . Fraternally he was connected with the I. O. O. F.

Alfred Mitchell

The death occurred at the Peel Memorial Hospital last Thursday of Alfred Mitchell, aged 55, a native of the Grahamsville district. Mr. Mitchell farmed for a number of years near Malton, afterwards moving to Weston. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a Conservative, and a member of McCormack L.O.M. Toronto. Besides his widow, formerly Miss Lily Olive Sheard, he is survived by three brothers, James, William and S. H. Mitchell; also two sisters, Mrs. Peter Farr and Mrs. Robert Giffen.

W. A. Mitchell was the first watchmaker in Peel County. He is said to have made the first two watches in Canada. One of these is now in the possession of Jos. Mitchell of Toronto, and the other in the possession of D. L. Mitchell of Brampton. I think the one in Toronto is the first one.

Mr. Mitchell as a young man traded through Tullamore district and practically all over Peel County and the adjoining counties. He carried a bag on his back and sold watches and trinkets, etc.

He married Sarah Lebert of Toronto Twp. They had eight children and of them, 6 are surviving. Get further details about the families from Mrs. C. L. Daly, 499 Windermere Avenue, Toronto, a daughter.

I believe Mr. Mitchell came over from England. The Leberts were Huguenot French and were associated with the Cooksville district. They were not primarily land owners. The elder Lebert was a baker at Cooksville and later at Norval.

One feature of Mitchell's residence in Brampton was the fact that he lived on the Etobicoke, and about 1883 there was a cloudburst in Brampton which overflowed the river and you could row a boat on the streets. His was one of the houses flooded. Of course, this is mostly hearsay.

Mitchell's store is still standing in very much the same shape as it was then, but is now occupied by a Chinese laundry.

One of Mr. Mitchell's sons, Louie, now living at Langstaff, on Yonge St., opposite the Jail Farm, was very prominent in the sporting activities of Brampton during the Bicycle era. He himself was prominent as a bicycle racer and has won several Dominion championships. He can probably give you a picture.

AGRICULTURE

Mr. Mitchell says that some of the Credit river people raised geese on a "soviet" principle. Each one having a goose or two and letting them loose in the Credit near a grist mill, where they fattened and increased in number. When it came to a division of the geese many humorous quarrels resulted.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. G. L. MITCHELL, Langstaff P.O.

> Bicycle <

Family History
Mitchell

My sister Mrs. C.L. Daly, of Windermere Ave.

was in and gave all material on our family I think.

I started riding a bicycle in 1893 in Brampton.

My first race in Brampton was a match race with Ken McFadden. This was supposed to be a race between the working class and the "upper ten". The working class won. In other words, I won the race. The second race was a race sponsored by the Orangemen. They had a big celebration at Rosalea. This was the next year I think. I won everything that day. A fellow named Graham who lived near Derry West was one of the competitors. My third race was with the man that really started me racing, Jack Moore. He was from Tullamore. His father kept hotel there. Jack Moore was a big rider for the Ramblers Bicycle Club in Toronto. He came to Brampton to train for the 20 Mile R.Q.T. Road Race. I used to pace him while he was training. One Sunday I was following him up. I didn't think he was riding very well. We just had two more laps to go and I sprinted and beat him. It was then I found out that I really could beat a champion.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. G. L. MITCHELL, Langstaff, P.O.

He thought I was good and loaned me his bicycle to train on. Then some of the residents of Brampton, mostly ~~by~~ the officers of the Sports Club there, (of which Dr. Roberts was usually the President) sponsored a race for Jack Moore and myself. I thought this race with Jack Moore was going to be very hard because it was "for blood" as you might say, and so I trained very hard. The race was a 5-mile race, and so before the race started I got on my bicycle and rode to Huttonville and back, a distance of 9-miles just to get warmed up. In a race like that one man always paced the other because the one behind was always at an advantage. I paced the first quarter of a mile and I rode just as hard as I could so to make it hard for him and then when it was his turn to go up and pace he could hardly do so because he was all tired out, from trying to keep up to me. In this way I would get a rest each time he paced and tire him out when I paced. I won the race. He was just killed and had no pep left of course. He didn't even finish the last quarter mile at all.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. G. L. MITCHELL, Langstaff, P.O.

Some of the officials in this Sports Club in Brampton were Dr. Roberts who was generally president and was a good, clean sportsman, J. J. Manning and Thos. Thauburn.

In these days bicycles were very popular and they used to have races and meets all over the Dominion. They used to give large prizes like pianos and suites of furniture and clocks and many other things.

In 1896 I came to Toronto and I took up clock work as a specialty. However I found it very hard to get a job in Toronto at clock work so I followed up bicycle racing and took a position with the Gendron Manufacturing Co. who made bicycles at the time. They are still in business but do not make bicycles now. I entered in the R.Q.T. 20 mile road race. This R.Q.T. was three clubs which held a 20 mile race, 10 miles up and 10 miles down the Kingston Road. (Royal Canadian, Queen City and Toronto Bicycle Clubs). I entered three of these races. The first 2 I did not have very much success in, especially on account of the roads being so very bad. The third I got 5 minutes start and finished 16th. I won 2 chairs, a sewing basket and a foot-stool all made by the Gendron Mfg. Co.

The next race I was in was the Dunlop Trophy, the

INTERVIEW WITH MR. G. L. MITCHELL, Langstaff, P.O.

Bicycle Classic of Canada, another 20-mile road race held on the same route but it was a race composed of the best racers in all the clubs all over Canada. It consisted of three men from each club that wished to enter the race. I belonged to the Queen City Bicycle Club and we finished second three years in succession. We never could quite make first place. We used to ride the 20 miles under the hour.

If you inquired from "The Canadian Wheelman" they could give you fuller particulars as to dates and times etc. Robert Falconer is president of the Canadian Assoc. Wheelman/I think and lives in Toronto.

My next race was a 10-mile Handicap sponsored by the Brownie Bicycle Club West Toronto. I don't remember any names except I know Cassidy was an officer in the club. I got a gold medal, worth about $2.50. I had the medal made into my wife's engagement ring and it was later stolen by burglars. I held the record for this for 2 years after which my own partner broke my record. His name was Smith.

He and I won the Pursuit Race Championship of Canada. A Pursuit Race is where you start on opposite sides of the track and they made it a team race. It was sponsored by the Canadian Wheelman's Association of Guelph and my partner and I won it. Bicycles went out then and my club still holds the trophy we won.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. G. L. MITCHELL, Langstaff, P.O.

I forgot about my Novice Race which I had to win before I could enter any of these bigger racers. You had to win your Novice Race first and after you did you could never enter another. I won my Novice Race at Orangeville from all the crack racers at Toronto. I can't remember any of the dates of any of these races.

In Brampton after I beat Moore so badly he quit and then we depended on outside riders.

I have got some cups and trophies.

I used to think nothing of riding to St. Marys and back in one day, it was 112 miles.

I would ride to Guelph too. I would leave Toronto at 1 o'clock and be there at 6.

I used to ride to Orillia too to see my girl.

The farmers used to patronize these bicycle races and would stop their work and come in to see them. I think I remember them boasting of a crowd of 5000 at Brampton, once.

Old Mr. Jennings, Mr. Bert Jennings father was owner of the Lacrosse Field. He performed the marvelous feat of having grass on the field for the 24th of May every year.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. G. L. MITCHELL, Langstaff P.O.

I went in more for clock making and repairing. That is making parts for clocks that were imported and so on. That is, parts that could not be bought.

My Brother W. J. Mitchell has our old grandfather clock. Our father would never let us play with fire-arms and we used to hire a rifle from a tinker in Brampton and hide it in that old clock. This same brother on Lansdowne Ave. has a picture of the Brampton Bicycle Club.

For bicycling we always got our wheels from Toronto. I have a picture of myself on a wheel and a picture of my bicycle club racing team, -- the Queen City Bicycle Club.

I had some wonderful times when I was a boy. We had a swimming hole at Wm. Fletcher's the 1st concession west of Brampton under the railroad tracks. I remember the boys would not wear bathing suits and one day the train came along and rolled down rocks and filled the pond with stones.

North Toronto Irishwoman Celebrates 99th Birthday Has Blarney Stone Charm

There is a charming and gracious white-haired lady, Mrs. William Mitchell, living at 95 Cranbrooke ave., who yesterday celebrated her 99th birthday, and in whose honor a reception was held last night at the home of her son, J. C. Mitchell, 19 Wanless crescent.

The pleasant task of interviewing Mrs. Mitchell proved also to be a lucky one, if one believes in good luck charms, for The Telegram reporter who visited her at her home.

Seated in her sunny living room, she chatted about current events and olden days, displaying a keen intellect and marvellous memory, which even recalled seeing Londonderry when she sailed from Ireland for Canada with her father, mother and brother nearly 90 years ago in a sailing vessel which took seven weeks to make the crossing. Though living only as a child in her native Ireland, Mrs. Mitchell has the characteristic traits of the Irish people.

"I have a piece of the Blarney stone, it brings good luck to whoever kisses it," she said, and here's where the reporter's luck comes in, for she was not only shown the charm but allowed to kiss it.

"You may tell your photographer he may kiss it, too, when he comes to take my picture," she promised, smilingly, as she replaced the charm in a box for safe keeping. Among her pastimes are reading, of which she does a great deal, and crochet, exquisitely fine samples of which were greatly admired.

OLD TELEGRAM READER

Mrs. Mitchell has been a reader of The Evening Telegram for 55 years.

"I love The Telegram, I read all of it every night, it takes me about three hours. I always tune in to Jim Hunter, too," she said.

"How do you like Bob MacLean's stories from Ethiopia?" asked the reporter.

"They are splendid. He must be a very brave young man to stay there," was the reply, a shade of anxiety crossing the speaker's face.

Mrs. Mitchell said she enjoyed all the society news, and with a twinkle in her eye, added that she knows just what is correct to wear for any occasion. The writer did not enquire what the birthday party gown would be, as the affair was to be a surprise, but it was learned later that Mrs. Mitchell wore a black and white figured dress with white trimming and a corsage bouquet of pink roses, the gift of four of her great-grandchildren, Mary and Margaret Clark, Craig and Barry Mitchell.

The result of the general election was not to Mrs. Mitchell's liking, though in her own riding of Eglinton, where she cast her vote, never having missed doing so since women were granted the franchise, she rejoiced at the Conservative victory. She recalled the days of the open ballot in the time of Sir John A. Macdonald, adding: "But, of course, women could not vote in those days." On Monday evening she sat up until after midnight to hear the radio election returns. Usually she retires at 11 o'clock and rises at 8 a.m. Her health is good, she takes short walks, enjoys riding in her granddaughter's two-seater car, and at Christmas goes down town alone to do her shopping.

Mrs. Mitchell goes to the Canadian National Exhibition each year and was a visitor at the first Exhibition. She used to live in the country at Norval. Her husband built the spire on Brampton United Church. She remembers carrying wool to the carding machines, and afterwards spinning it and knitting socks and mitts for the family. One of her sons fought in the Northwest Rebellion, and a daughter, who now lives in Brooklyn, New York, has written to her mother every week for over 40 years of her married life.

HAS MANY FRIENDS

The love and esteem felt for Mrs. Mitchell by her numerous relatives and friends was apparent yesterday in the many gifts and messages of congratulation which she received. Her home was fragrant with birthday bouquets. From the minister of the Presbyterian Church, which she attends, and his wife, came a bunch of red roses; another clergyman friend sent a box of chocolates, a silver basket was full of Ophelia roses, while at the home of her son, James, where the reception was held, were numerous other gifts, and a big birthday cake iced in white with multi-colored floral decorations to hold the 99 candles.

Mauve and yellow 'mums in a silver vase resting on mauve tulle centred the table, with four yellow candles in silver candlesticks.

Miss Margaret Henry of Cheltenham and Mrs. Joseph Harper poured tea.

The assistants were: Mrs. A. G. Clark, Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, Miss Margaret Mitchell, Miss Mary Clarke, and Miss Margaret Clark.

Receiving with Mrs. Mitchell were her three sons, James C., William, and Charles W., and two daughters, Mrs. W. Covin, and Mrs. Wm. McMurray of New York. She has 18 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren, many of whom were present with the hundred or more guests who gathered last night to do her honor. About 150 guests were present.

Mono Road Couple Mark
Anniversary of Wedding

10 Oct. 1935
Brampton, Oct. 9 (Special).—Celebrating their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mitchell, Mono Road, recalled today the appearance of the first steam-powered threshing machine in Ohingwacousy Township. Mr. Mitchell, as a young man, used to team wheat from the Mono Road district to the docks in Toronto. The teamsters, he remembered, were as noisy and overbearing as the famed rivermen of the early days of Canada.

In 1922 Mr. John Mitchell purchased 250 acres of land from Mr. Albert ~~Webb~~ Webb. This land the whole of lot 5 con. 2, and part of con. 1. West Caledon. The property is a general farm and is run as such. It contains a small orchard, some standing limber, a large pasture and the cultivated land required to raise the necessary crops to feed the stock that is kept. Primarily the farm is dependant on dairying for its source of revenue and a large milking herd is kept comprising 65 head of grade Holsteins and Jerseys. A large number of poultry are kept of various breeds, the pure bred birds are some 250 White leghorn hens, 50 Pekin ducks, 30 turkeys and a small flock of Wild duck. The house is a typical stone farm house which was built in 1840 and has had no alterations since it was constructed. The gardens are also more useful than ornamental with a large vegetable garden and little or no attempt at landscaping or formality.

Mr. J. Mitchell is an active supporter of the liberal party in Peel and a member of the United Church but has held no office under either church or state. He is a lawyer in Toronto, and is located in the Continental Life Bldg. Bay Street.

MRS. THOMAS FARR

Many friends from Toronto, Gore, Chinguacousy, Vaughan and Etobicoke attended the funeral of Mrs. Thomas A. (Pete) Farr, on Tuesday afternoon, May 25th, with Rev. Davidson, of Thistletown United Church, officiating, and interment was made in Riverside Cemetery, Weston. Mrs. Farr was in her 78th year and passed away on Sunday as the result of a fractured hip sustained many months ago. Deceased before marriage was Margaret Ellen Mitchell, daughter of the late James and Martha Mitchell, pioneers in Peel County. She was born in Haldimand County and as a child moved to Grahamsville and following her marriage came to Thistletown. She is survived by her husband, a sister, Mrs. J. Giffen, Brampton, and W. J. Mitchell, a brother, of Woodbridge.

MRS. ELIZA MITCHELL, TORONTO

One of Toronto's Oldest Residents and Active Until Within Short Time of Her Death—Was Born in Ireland—Came to the County of Peel at the Age of Six

One of the oldest residents of Toronto, Mrs. Eliza Mitchell, a former resident of this district, died on Monday in her 101st year. She was the widow of the late William Mitchell and the mother of Mrs. William Conn, William, James C. and Chas. Mitchell. She died at her home, 19 Wanless crescent.

It was more than ninety years ago when Mrs. Mitchell made the seven-week voyage to Canada from the old country by sailing boat. She settled near this town, where an older brother owned a farm.

Active, until within a short time of her death, Mrs. Mitchell was an early riser and worked about her home. She never retired until 11 p.m.

She remembered Sir John A. Macdonald. Two years ago at the general election she went to the polls and exercised her franchise.

Philosophically she awaited the end. "Whenever I go, I'm ready," she told a reporter on her 99th birthday.

Mrs. Mitchell was born in Ireland, Oct. 15th, 1836. Coming to Canada with her parents in a sailing vessel at the age of six, she settled at Norval. She had lived in Toronto since 1878. She has 15 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Her father before her lived to the age of 101 and her mother to the age of 97. Ill for the past few months, Mrs. Mitchell was in fine health up to her 100th birthday last October. She attended the C.N.E. last fall and would often take trips downtown alone. Her eyesight was keen enough to enable her to do delicate needlework.
